Did you ever notice that the standard articles which sell the cheapest are also the ones which are the most widely advertised? That is a fact and the same is true of mercantile houses. The store that advertises the most is in nearly every instance not only the most reliable, but sells the best goods the cheapest. The establishment that hesitates to tell the public its brands and its prices usually is forced to make up its lack of volume of business by increased prices, and are seldom, if ever, "one price to all" concerns.

Miss Catherine Hayden, of the Bates County Democrat staff, received a long distance telephone message Saturday, announcing the death of her nephew, K. The Influenza.

The influenza situation in Butler and Bates county shows but little change from last week. The county, and especially Butler, seem to have considerably fewer cases of the epidemic than other communities.

Every precaution is being taken to prevent a spread of the disease and the fact that it is being checked at other places would indicate that the danger of an epidemic here is practically past.

THE PEOPLES BANK CALF CLUB SALE

Heifers in Good Condition and Brought Good Prices.

The Peoples Bank Calf Club held its sale of Holstein heifers here Saturday, October 19th, the event attracting a large crowd of enthusiastic buyers.

The stock was all in excellent condition and the prices paid were remarkably uniform for so large a sale. The average price paid was $61.60 per head, and State Dairy Commissioner, E. G. Bennett, of Carthage, Mo., stated that at no other place in the state where similar sales have been held has the stock been so uniformly good.

The prizes which had been offered by Butler business men were awarded by State Dairy Commissioner E. G. Bennett, assisted by W. D. McKee of the State Board of Agriculture and immediately thereafter a parade of the stock was held. The Butler Concert Band headed the procession and was followed by "Peoples Pride" the handsome heifer donated to the Red Cross by the Peoples Bank. She was led in the parade by Raymond Fransham dressed as Uncle Sam, and Miss Edith Mier in the garb of a Red Cross nurse.

After the sale talks were made by W. D. McKee, of the State Board of Agriculture and Wesley Denton, President of the Peoples Bank. Mr. Denton in his talk gave credit for the success of the Peoples Bank to the boys and girls and men and women of Bates county and reminded his audience that the bank stood ready and anxious to at all times support them in any worthy enterprise. He also stated that the bank contemplated the establishment of other live stock clubs and requested that the boys and girls who might be interested call at the bank and advise with its officers in regard to the matter.

At the conclusion of the sale, the drawing was held for "Peoples Pride," Henry Moudy of Adrian holding the lucky number, 1519. Mr. Moudy immediately presented the heifer back to the Red Cross and she was at once auctioned off, T. C. Jones of this city buying her in for $130.00. The drawing was made by little Miss Alice Embree, Judge C. J. Henry, J. R. Baum and C. K. Harper acting as judges. "Peoples Pride" has been a most valuable animal for the Red Cross, the entire transaction netting $1,400.25 to the cause. She is a beautiful little animal and was raised by Claud and Raymond Fransham, of Butler, Mo., R. F. D. No. 4.

The Peoples Bank Calf Club was organized in October, 1917, when the Peoples Bank in order to impress upon the younger generation the dairying possibilities of the county, purchased the Holstein heifers in Wisconsin and delivered them to the Club members at a net cost of $24.00 per head. Since that time thirteen of the calves died, the loss in each case being borne by the Peoples Bank, and not by the youthful purchasers. That the Calf Club has proven an unqualified success is amply demonstrated by the results of the sale and its establishment will undoubtedly do much toward bringing Bates county into her own, as a dairying community. In order to further the excellent results already achieved, the bank has announced its intention of bringing into the county a number of registered males.
